BEE FUN!

In celebration of our BIG Draw event 'Bee Manchester' we had a Bee a Bee Day! All of Stanley Grove dressed as bees on Wednesday this week!

We raised a 'buzzing' £233.58 on Wednesday towards our BIG DRAW event!

Read the back of the newsletter for more information on our BEE BIG Draw event

GIRL'S FOOTBALL FESTIVAL

Miss Chambers had a great time on Tuesday this week with some of our Year 5 and 6 girls. They enjoyed a day learning new skills, playing matches and meeting footballers.

Martha was thrilled to know that last week school had an attendance of 97.9 %. Well done to all those classes who also got a Martha or Lenny last week.

It's BIG Draw Again and its' going to BEE Really BIG!

The Creative crew have been busy bees this week making frames for a stop motion film celebrating the City of Manchester and our community. It is called BEE Manchester and uses the famous Manchester Bee logo.

Over 11,022 people in 18 schools, 16 libraries and 2 museums are joining in our project! Keep an eye on the newsletter to see how you and your families can BEE involved and support our latest project!

Old £1 coins go out of circulation on Sunday. You can still use them to bank your dinner money for next week

THE BOOK FAIR WAS BACK!

The book fair was really well attended this week! Thank you to all parents/carers who visited us in the book fair, and for all those staff who helped after school. We hope all the children enjoy reading their new books!
